

Washington

On stage at the 'Stro Wednesday 2 June 2010

Megan Washington came to the 'Stro as part of a two-month tour as special guests for the Beautiful Girls. Venturing north from Armidale they will perform a coveted spot at Splendour in the Grass.

Since their conception in 2008, Washington has won the Triple J unearthed competition and the inaugural Vanda and Young songwriting competition for 'How To Tame Lions'. They performed a sold-out tour in February this year and have toured with the likes of Kate Miller-Heidke, Sia, Camille and Tim Finn. And after one memorable appearance on SBS's RockWiz, Meg was invited on the show's tour in March 2010.

Meg has also collaborated with Tim Finn and Paul Kelly, and Keith Urban recently invited her to perform a duet at Rod Laver Arena in Melbourne.

